

*Spiritual Reiki
Retreat* India Nov 2008

Jaipur '08

Hello and as we say in India, Namaste!

In this course you will learn to heal yourself and also others.

Whatever you are looking for from this retreat cum course, there is something for everyone. Whether you want to find your inner peace, gain insight into your soul or to develop your healing skills on the path you are already on, this is the course for you!

Reiki is such a powerful energy that when done with love, it can bring enormous amounts of healing, joy & happiness into your life and to others. If you are ready to embark on this journey with me, I warmly welcome you to the spiritual land of India where we will be working together towards our own sacred space.

My work is to bring this special gift to you. And as I work with crystals, it will make the energy more special and exciting. This means you will receive additional skills and this will be reflected on your certificate.

I look forward to us meeting and working together.

Love & light, Robin Bela
